

Report on 'National Education Policy Week' Organised at Pemraj Sarda College, Ahmednagar

Date - 24/07/2023 to 29/07/2023

Introduction:

As per guidelines issued by the State Government of Maharashtra and directives by Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pemraj Sarda College, Ahmednagar, celebrated the 'National Education Policy Week' to develop awareness and guide students and parents about NEP, academic excellence, and student engagement. The event featured a range of activities, including Reels Competition, Poster Design Competition, Poster Exhibition and Essay Writing Competition. Students from all faculties participated enthusiastically, showcasing their talents and skills.

Activities:

1. Reels Competition:

The reels competition aimed to harness the creative abilities of the students. Participants were encouraged to create short and engaging videos on educational themes, using social media platforms. The competition saw a diverse array of entries, each offering unique perspectives and innovative ideas.

2. Poster Design Competition:

The poster design competition challenged students to visually communicate the key objectives and principles of the National Education Policy. Participants exhibited their artistic flair by crafting eye-catching posters that conveyed important messages related to the policy's vision.

3. Essay Writing Competition:

The essay writing competition provided an intellectual platform for students to express their thoughts on educational reforms and their impact. Topics related to the National Education Policy were assigned, encouraging participants to critically analyze and present their viewpoints. Essay writing competition received huge response from students.

4. Expert Lecture:

On 27th July, a guest lecture by an expert was organised to guide students, parents and teachers. Prof. Dr. S. P. Lawande (Rtd. IC Principal), President of MFUCTO was invited to enlighten the audience on National Education Policy. Through his scholarly PowerPoint Presentation, he shed light on various aspects of the NEP. His lecture was followed by question-answer session.

Participation:

The event witnessed active participation from students across all faculties of Pemraj Sarda College. Enthusiasm and interest were evident, as the students embraced the opportunity to contribute their voices to the educational discourse. The wide representation from various fields enhanced the diversity and depth of perspectives expressed during the competitions.

Outcomes:

The National Education Policy Week fostered a sense of camaraderie and healthy competition among the students. It provided a platform for them to showcase their talents, express their ideas, and enhance their creativity. The event also facilitated a deeper understanding of the new education policy and its potential impact on the academic landscape.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the National Education Policy Week held at Pemraj Sarda College, Ahmednagar, proved to be a successful and engaging initiative. Through the reels competition, poster design competition, and essay writing competition, students from all faculties demonstrated their passion for education and showcased their skills. Winners of all the competitions were felicitated at the hands of the Chief Guest on 27th July, 2023. Certificates of Participation were issued to all the contestants.

The event played a pivotal role in spreading awareness about the National Education Policy and its implications, while also encouraging students to become active contributors to the educational reforms. The institution's commitment to promoting academic excellence and creativity was evident throughout the event.
